Healing From Racial Injustices

Every Friday from 12-1pm in the Multicultural Center (August 26th–December 16th)

Come share your experiences & learn strategies to heal from racial discomfort

The purpose of this group is to provide a space for people of color to:

➢ Process violence against people of color
➢ Validate and affirm one another
➢ Process race-related macro and microaggressions
➢ Heal as a community

Facilitators:

➢ Angi Haeny, M.A.
  Doctoral Candidate
  Clinical Psychology
➢ Oscar F. Rojas Perez, M.A.
  Doctoral Candidate
  Counseling Psychology

Department of Black Studies
Department of Psychological Sciences
Division of Inclusion, Diversity, and Equity
Department of Educational, School, & Counseling Psychology
Contact us at: MU.CWRRS@gmail.com