

Research Assistants Needed Spring 2021

The Alcohol Cognitions Lab is recruiting motivated undergraduate research assistants that are hoping to get involved in research on addiction and decision-making.

Research assistants will have opportunities to:

- Be involved in data collection and alcohol administrations
- Participate in recruitment, screening, and data entry
- Learn about graduate school and careers in psychology
- Earn Psych 2950/4950 credit

Email Rachel Wesley (rlwgff@umsystem.edu) to get involved or visit <http://faculty.missouri.edu/mccarthydm/> for more information about the lab
