

Personality Dynamics Lab

Research Assistants Needed

Earn valuable experience for graduate school

Volunteer and research credit positions are available

We research Meaning in Life and Well-being and how they relate to a variety of topics such as complex emotions (hope & awe), racism and prejudice, gender identity, childhood trauma, prosocial behavior, personality differences, and more.

Research assistants can gain research experience of the entire research process from study design, data collection, coding and data analysis, and write-up and presentation.

Great experience if interested in graduate school, especially in personality, social, or clinical psychology, as well as social work, human resources, and more. A commitment of at least 3 hours per week (per credit hour) is required.

Openings available starting Summer 2022 & Fall 2022

If interested, please contact Hope Rose by email

hercny@mail.missouri.edu

Lab Director: Dr. Laura King